

Upcoming side events at the United Nations Conference to Negotiate a Legally Binding Instrument to Prohibit Nuclear Weapons, which will present

Evidence of Humanitarian Impacts of Nuclear Weapons

Wednesday 21 June

The Road Back to the Nuclear Brink

1:15 -2.30pm in Conference Room 1

Developments in nuclear weapons targeting systems will be presented and discussed in the frame of international effort to reduce nuclear dangers. Speakers: Matthew McKinzie, Natural Resources Defence Council; Hans Kristensen, Federation of American Scientists; and Arjun Makhijani, Institute for Energy and Environmental Research

Friday 23 June

Gender and Nuclear Weapons

1:15—2:30 Conference Room B

Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, International Campaign Against Nuclear Weapons and Nuclear Information and Resource Service to address how gender has been reflected in other disarmament instruments, nuclear weapons gendered impacts and the priority for including gender in the discourse and final treaty.

Tuesday 27 June

Humanitarian impact of nuclear weapons: Nuclear Winter and Nuclear Famine

1:15—2:30 Conference Room B

International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War will present findings on how climate impacts triggered by the use of nuclear weapons would impact global food availability.

We look forward to engaging with you in this important discussion.

A calendar of these and other side events at the UN Conference to Negotiate a Legally Binding Instrument to Prohibit Nuclear Weapons is posted here:

<http://www.reachingcriticalwill.org/disarmament-fora/nuclear-weapon-ban/calendar>